At Ruth Thompson Middle School we believe in strong foundations. Our agenda program which is to be used by every student in every class every day is a key communication tool between school and home, while being important for keeping track of important assignment due dates and housing a record of achievement. By sharing a common language, we can all set high expectations. Our cornerstone reference is Sean Covey's Seven Habits of Highly Effective Teenagers, with these seven habits listed in student agendas and posted on every classroom wall. Monthly Thompson Time lessons are built around these seven ideas.
