1145 Bronte Street South, Milton, ON, Canada

St. Francis Xavier Catholic Secondary School is dedicated to academic excellence, the development of each individual's interests and talents and the nurturing of the Catholic Faith. Students are taught to think critically, work independently, communicate effectively, and show respect for themselves, for others, and for the environment. By accepting the challenge of education now, our students will be prepared to meet the future with faith, confidence and a strong sense of their own self-worth. The staff, in partnership with home and church, is dedicated to helping our students respond to this challenge by helping them discover the strengths and talents inherent in each and every one of them.
