Sunningdale is a French Immersion School for students in Grades 2 - 8 located on Oxford Avenue in Oakville. The French Immersion program provides half the day's instruction in French and half in English. Sunningdale School is special in many ways. Our fabulous teachers are dedicated in providing quality education and are committed to the development of each and every student. Parents have always been an integral part of our Sunningdale team. Positive and productive relationships with the community have continually been a priority for our staff as they welcome and encourage strong home/school partnerships. We are very fortunate to have a secretarial and custodial staff that consistently demonstrate on-going care and concern for our students and the whole school community. The administration, teachers, and staff appreciate the strong community relationships that have been established and strive to maintain them. We value and respect the strengths, uniqueness, and diversity of all our students and promote many opportunities to appreciate and experience Canada's bilingual culture.
